Course Description:
This course will include instruction on the basic skills, rules, strategies, in basketball and volleyball.

Optional Texts:

Any basketball and/or volleyball text. Books available for use in Silcox study room.

Course Objectives:  Competencies within the course should prepare students:

1. To develop and improve on basic skills in basketball and volleyball by participating in drills and competitive activities.
2. To provide a basic knowledge and understanding of the rules and strategies of basketball and volleyball through application in game situations.
3. To develop an interest in activities which provide an opportunity for physical fitness through life-long participation.

Requirements:
• Engagement Activity  10%
• Participation          10%
• Skills Tests           40%
• Written Tests          40%

Engagement Activity:
Students will choose to complete an engagement activity in volleyball or basketball. The activity may include on of the following options.

1. Complete a written report on a basketball or volleyball related issue. It has to be a minimum of 2 typed pages, have cover page with your name, and at least two references. The paper may be submitted to the Dropbox in OAKS.
2. Design and teach an activity related to basketball or volleyball. The activity must be taught in class and can include the entire class or a group of students. It is the students responsibility to talk to the instructor to schedule the activity. The length of the activity should be determined by the student, in consultation with the instructor, but should be a minimum of 5 minutes.
3. Create a 2-5 minute video clip of teaching a specific skill used in basketball or volleyball. This video uploaded to You Tube and the link should be submitted in posted to a discussion board in OAKS.

Make-up Test: Make-up written (not skills) tests may be given with an excused absence, but it is the responsibility of the student to inform the instructor immediately upon missing a test to arrange for make-up tests. Unexcused make-ups may be given with 10 points per day reduction, but not skills tests which may be given over two class periods. Missing either day will result in loss of the skill tested on the respective day.

Attendance: Attendance is required. You may miss three classes without being penalized. For each additional unexcused absence, your final grade will be reduced by two points. In the event that students are doing unapproved activities, such as texting, the instructor may consider the student to be absent for that class.

Honor System: The College of Charleston Honor System is recognized in this course. For the specific details of responsibility and penalty, see the current issue of the College of Charleston Student Handbook.
