Course Requirements and Attendance Policy:

1. In-class activities will include explanation and demonstration of skills and strategy required to play tennis followed by student participation in practice, competition, and skill testing. Students will work on skill objectives on an individual basis with classmates.
2. Out-of-class activity will include practice and competitive opportunities provided to the student through campus recreation services.
3. All students will be allowed two (2) unexcused absences, except during evaluation periods. Roll will be checked daily.
4. Every missed class in excess of the two (2) unexcused absences will result in two (2) percentage points being deducted from your final grade average. Eight (8) or more absences for any reason (excused or unexcused) will result in an automatic “F” in the class.
5. Class will begin and end in a timely manner. You are expected to be prepared when class begins. Persistent tardiness will result in loss of points.
6. You are responsible for any work missed when you fail to attend class.
7. Since this is a participation class, students will be expected to report to each class prepared to participate with appropriate clothing, tennis racket and tennis shoes.
8. Profanity and other types of inappropriate behavior will not be tolerated. Those who cannot abide by this will be dismissed from class.
9. Make-up exams for skill and knowledge tests will only be given when extenuating circumstances exist.
10. You are required to research one aspect of tennis (history, equipment, a player, etc.). The paper must be typed, double-spaced, and a minimum of three pages using two other sources other than your text. You must cite your works throughout your paper. Papers are due on October 2. Late papers will not be accepted and any individual not turning in a paper receives an “0” on the assignment.

ACADEMIC HONOR CODE: Students will be expected to abide by the academic honor code found on pages 55-62 in the Student Handbook.
