Scope:
This course provides a study of the fundamentals of literacy, including reading, writing, listening, speaking, viewing, and designing relevant to learners from Pre-K through 3rd grade. It emphasizes the literacy process, factors affecting that process, and the principles and skills involved in the development of literacy within young children.
(NCATE 1, 2b, 3a-e; NAEYC/EC 1, 4, 4a-c & 3; ACEI 2.1)

This course is intended to question what you know and to force you to be able to articulate what you learn about RECOMMENDED PRACTICE in literacy instruction.

Course Outcomes:
All teacher preparation programs in the School of Education (SOEHHHP) are guided by a commitment to Making the Teaching Learning Connection through three Elements of Teacher Competency, which are at the heart of the SOEHHHP Conceptual Framework:
(1) Understanding and valuing the learner
(2) Knowing what and how to teach and assess and how to create an environment in which learning occurs
(3) Understanding themselves as professionals. These three competencies underlie all learning and assessment in this course, helping you develop the knowledge, skills, and dispositions necessary to become an effective teacher

Course outcomes are derived from the standards set forth by several organizations. The standards listed in parentheses at the end of each course outcome relate to those of the SOEHHP (School of Education, Health and Human Performance), IRA (International Reading Association), NAEYC (National Association for the Education of Young Children), ACEI (Association for Childhood Education International), NCATE (National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education), and the required South Carolina Standards (EEDA- South Carolina Education and Economic Development Act-SC 4), Safe Schools Climate Act/Bullying -SC 6), and ISTE (International Society for Technology in Education).

These standards define, respectively, expectations for the School of Education Health and Human Performance, early childhood teachers, and literacy instruction. The following outcomes are organized by the Elements of Teacher Competency:

(1) UNDERSTANDING AND VALUING THE LEARNER:
- Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of first and second language development to design emergent literacy programs and strategies that build on students’ skills and backgrounds and are effective (NCATE 1, 2b & 3a-e; NAEYC/EC 1, 4 &4a-c; SOEHHP Standard I, II, III, R2S 7).
- Demonstrate an understanding of the different preconceptions, miscue patterns, and misconceptions that student may exhibit and how these should be addressed instructionally (NCATE 1, 2b, 4; NAEYC/EC 1, 4b, 3; SOEHHP Standard V, R2S 2, R2S 3).

(2) KNOWING WHAT AND HOW TO TEACH AND ASSESS AND HOW TO CREATE ENVIRONMENTS IN WHICH LEARNING OCCURS:
- Model effective use of the English language (NCATE 2b; NAEYC/EC 4b; ACEI 2.1; SOEHHP Standard V).
- Demonstrate a thorough knowledge of the developmental process of emergent literacy and all the factors involved in it (NCATE 1, 2b & 3a-e; NAEYC/EC 1, 4, 4a-c; SOEHHP Standard II; SC 4, R2S 1).
- Demonstrate an ability to use effective instructional strategies, technologies, and varied language activities (including the use of children’s literature) to help students become strategic beginning readers and respond to what they have read (NCATE 2b & 3a-e; NAEYC/EC 4 & 4a-c; ACEI 3.1; IRA 1; SOEHHP Standard III; ISTE, R2S 2, R2S 4).

*Working syllabus and subject to change
• Demonstrate a thorough knowledge of the lexicon, syntax, history, varieties, literature, and processes of the English language/Language Arts (NCATE 2b & 3a-e; NAEYC/EC 4 & 4a-c; ACEI 2.1; SOEHHP Standard II; SC 4, R2S 5).

• Demonstrate knowledge of all major approaches to reading and an ability to teach students using a balanced reading program that includes emphasis on the use of phonemic relationships, context, and text that has meaning for the students (NCATE 2b & 3a-e; NAEYC/EC 4b & 4a-c; IRA 2 and 4; SOEHHP Standard III, R2S 1).

• Demonstrate the ability to communicate with, guide, and assist parents in fostering early and continued growth in literacy (NCATE 5b & 5c; NAEYC/EC 5 & 2; ACEI 5.3; SOEHHP Standard V, R2S 5).

• Design formative and summative assessments to determine the level of students’ competence in their understanding and use of language and use the results of such assessments to design beginning instruction (NCATE 4 & 3a-e; NAEYC/EC 3 & 4a-4b; ACEI 4; IRA 3; SOEHHP Standard VI, R2S 3, R2S 4).

• Demonstrate the ability to organize and manage a classroom climate within which all students have the desire to learn and to engage in emergent and early literacy (NCATE 3a-e & 5b, 5d; NAEYC/EC 4a-e & 5, 2; ACEI 1, 3.2; IRA 2 and 4; SOEHHP Standard III & VI; SC 6, R2S 5).

(3) UNDERSTANDING SELF AS A PROFESSIONAL:

• View professional development as a career-long effort and responsibility (IRA 5; SOEHHP Standard IV, V, VII, R2S 6).

Assignments:

Quizzes: (10 points each = 40 points)

Four quizzes will cover information learned over the course. All examinations are content-based (from readings, in-class discussions, class notes) and cumulative. Quizzes are 15 minutes in length and are intended to be quick snapshots of your understanding of foundational literacy components. Requests for make-up exams must be sent to teacher in writing prior to beginning of class period.

Professionalism (Attendance, Preparedness, Demeanor, and Participation-15 points)

Prepare for the class, contribute, and ask questions. Be thoughtful and respectful. Class attendance is expected in both body and mind. There are 15 weeks of class; each week’s professionalism behaviors will determine points awarded.

Examples of quality professionalism:

• Bringing required readings and reflections submitted before class
• Asking questions
• Answering questions/responding to another student
• Active listening

Working syllabus and subject to change
• Making comments (should relate to material in the texts or course)
• Making comments that reflect connections between course content and relevant field experiences
• Collaborating well with peers

Things to avoid:
• Turning in assignments late, or failure to submit assignments. This includes Reading Responses, (unless you have a situation that has gained written approval from instructor)
• Multiple tardies/absences (detailed below)
• Repeated refusal to participate in class activities
• Texting, spending time online for non-class related browsing, working on coursework or reading for another class
• Isolating peers or avoiding collaboration
• Unprofessional comments in class towards another person (classmate, instructor, mentoring teacher, student)

Attendance Policy
• Class attendance is expected. Students are responsible for all content and assignments for each class. Two absences for any reason are allowed, but you WILL NOT receive participation credit for that class (no matter what the reason for your absence). Upon a fifth absence, the student will be automatically withdrawn from a course with the grade of WA. WA becomes an F on a transcript.
• Students who qualify for SNAP must present their official letter from the SNAP office to the professor within the first two weeks of the course if they wish special accommodations.
• Athletes who will miss class due to athletic events must see the professor within the first two weeks of the course and submit the athletic schedule for the semester, identifying classes that will be missed. No other absences will be allowed for athletes who miss the maximum allowable absences due to athletic events.
• Students who miss more than 2 classes (one week) will receive a one point deduction for each additional missed class session.
• Multiple tardies will also result in loss of professionalism points (after 2 tardies, a point is deducted for each following tardy). If you know that you will miss a class or be late for class, please notify me via email or text as soon as possible.

Students exhibiting unprofessional behaviors are subject to loss of a professionalism point per incident. Students will rate their own professionalism a minimum of twice during the semester as a means of reflection of their professional behaviors.

Reading Response Concept Maps (2 pts each= estimated 18 points):
Language and Literacy learning is an active and social process. How we interpret texts varies based on our own personal beliefs and experiences. Individualized responses to readings will be recorded.

Working syllabus and subject to change
Reading responses should include your personal reflections and real life connections to the main concepts for learning in the readings. The logs may also include key professional vocabulary, concepts, or theories covered in the readings, and your own personal response and connections to these concepts.

Clear connections to the readings must be made. It is not simply a reading summary. It is a deeper reflection of critical ideas and questions you have about the reading.

Responses May Take the Form of the Following:
- A blog post
- A podcast
- A wiki page
- A completed quiz from RLR chapter(s)
- A video/audio debate on topics covered
- A graphic organizer
- A 2 page summary
- A kahoot you create for the class

Class discussion points from each reading will be covered in the next class session’s Power Point. Please consider these points as areas of focus/reflection.

Phonics Work Stations (20 points):
Phonics is an important part of early literacy instruction. Opportunities to learn phonics should take place in a variety of settings, including learning work stations.
- Stations should be phonics based (No sight words).
- Stations must be engaging and interactive. No worksheets. You will plan and create two work stations that will each cover a different phonics lesson and activity.
- Stations must be hands-on learning (with manipulatives)
- Each work station should have: 1) brief definition/description of the phonics skill, 2) an example of the skill, and 3) an activity for two to four children (may be group, partner, or individual with peer interactions). This is not a worksheet in another format and should not be completed alone (ex. one child sorting cards alone is not accepted).
- You may work with a partner. While the project is collaborative, each individual must turn in both activities to Oaks to receive a grade. See rubric.

A graded copy of the rubric from a critical peer (not your partner) is due at the time of your submission. Both names (yours and critical peer) must be on the graded rubric. Failure to submit graded rubric will require a conference with both partners during office hours.

Literacy lesson plan (40 points): Rough draft due 5 days prior to teaching lesson

Working syllabus and subject to change
Each person needs to teach a reading/writing/word study section of a lesson plan. Each person is to plan his/her section and reflect on the section he/she taught individually. Within the body of the lesson plan, name who has planned and is teaching what parts of the lesson. Partners may provide feedback but one person is not to write the whole lesson/both sections. Your lesson plan must comply with the lesson plan format provided on Oaks. The lesson must begin with a piece of quality children’s text to introduce the learning objectives. Your learning objective should be directly related to the ELA standard that has been selected to teach.

Lessons must include student practice of these standard-based objectives both individually and in a group/partner setting. Lesson plans must include a way to assess the children’s understanding of objectives. This assessment should be something tangible which you will look back on/evaluate to help you understand how many children learned the objective at a proficient level, and how many would need further experience and support. It will also help to reflect on how you might do the lesson differently in the future with another group of students. You must include a copy of any assessments and handouts you will use in your lesson plan for approval.

Lesson plan development will be discussed extensively in class

Lesson Plan Approval:
- A back and forth cycle of reflection and edits is designed to promote personalized scaffolding. Instead of performing the lesson and then rewriting the lesson, we will work one-on-one (one in person meeting you schedule and then virtually) to perfect your lesson plan before trying it out in the field.
- Set up your meeting with the instructor as soon as you have a draft, MUST be at least a week in advance of teaching the lesson.
- To have time to successfully complete this reflection cycle, lesson plans are due 5 days in advance of the day in which you are schedule to teach.
- Lesson plans must be organized in the required format for me to be able to review and provide feedback.
- For efficiency and accuracy, please leave in the instructor comments and make all revisions in a different font color. Once the final lesson plan has been approved by the instructor, you may delete comments and make font uniformly black.

Your final lesson plan must be approved 24 hours in advance before you are scheduled to teach (this means I will not be rereading and approving edits the night before you are scheduled to teach). If lesson plan is not approved 24 hours before teaching, late penalties for the assignment will be applied. The lesson plan needs to be approved by both your instructor and your cooperating teacher.

Lesson Reflection:
THIS IS NOT THE SAME AS YOUR FIELD REFLECTION (turning in your field reflection to this course will earn a zero for this assignment)

Working syllabus and subject to change
Your lesson plan must be taught and formally evaluated by your mentoring teacher, your CofC supervisor, (not a peer) using some form of written feedback.

A reflection with named focus items (as seen in rubric) is due within 48 hours of completing your approved lesson. This should include your thoughts as well as address any feedback provided by the cooperating teacher. If your teacher is late in providing the written feedback, then reflect within 48 hours, submit, and then create a new file and resubmit on Oaks with the information included (don’t save on top of your old file because then I can’t see you submitted on time). I encourage you to take a picture of whatever they have written the day of your lesson so you are not sitting around waiting for them to type it or scan it to you.

You will be graded on your planning and reflection. The feedback form and reflection count as 10 of the 40 overall points. See Rubrics.

If you are having difficulty scheduling your lesson or gaining the standards/objectives for the lesson from your cooperating teacher, meet with me during my office hours.

Due: (initial draft due a minimum of one week prior to teaching and must be approved 48 hours before your scheduled date—varies by person)

New Literacies Project (40 points):

- You and a partner will create one digital activity for students, grades prek-3, to engage in multiple literacy skills for furthering knowledge in a social studies or science grade level standard of your choosing. The activity must cover one SC standard-based 1) ELA skill/objective and 2) one social studies or science standard (you have to teach both in interdisciplinary format). These must be clearly written/stated, and defined within the activity (Name the standard and objective and then say what it means in “kid speak”).
- This activity must be age appropriate and meant as a digital activity for students to complete without the teacher. The activity must involve new and critical literacies. (See Lapp and Woods articles).
- The activity must be interactive, engaging, and developmentally appropriate. It is not a “sit and see” activity (Ex. an interactive reading map instead of a video and a worksheet). See universal design readings or refer to edu tech resources. Activity may be in a website, Smart Notebook, Point Point, iMovie, Voicethread, etc. (your choice for medium selection but it must be multimodal).
- As critical literacies involve promoting and building upon local knowledge, this presentation will use local locations, landmarks, wildlife, famous people to connect to the SS or Sci standard.
- Additionally you must also represent standards from various “perspectives,” (ex. teach plant cycles through the growth of rice from the perspective of plantation owners, enslaved people, local merchants, etc). In other words your local “theme” must be related to the Low Country and the perspectives of differing cultures/people within.

Please see rubric for more details. See Oaks for project examples.

Working syllabus and subject to change
Critical partnerships should be created based on digital platform (ex. voicethread teams with other voicethread teams).

DUE IN GOOGLE DRIVE:
Submit completed draft to critical partners by (TBA) p.m. in Google Drive (instructor will check for timely submission, failure to submit in Google Drive by deadline will result in the loss of points per the rubric).
Use rubric to score and provided feedback. Upload feedback in partners’ Google Drive folder.
Critical partners must provide graded feedback rubrics to partners at least 48 hours in advance of due date.

DUE IN OAKS: Your final project or a link to your project by midnight of the due date
-Failure to meet the required submission times outlined in the syllabus will result in the immediate loss of points (see rubric).
Contact instructor if you have not received critical feedback within 48 hours of due date.

Literacy exam (40 points):
It is crucial as a literacy instructor of young children in this country to be able to understand the phonological and alphabetic relationships of the English language in addition to the role of language and vocabulary in comprehension development. This course requires an online multiple choice exam. Failure to make an 80% or higher will result in the completion of a student dispositions form concerning content knowledge as phonological skills are essential to the early childhood profession and will be seen on Praxis II assessment.

Readers Workshop Week of Lesson Plans (10 points per day, 50 pts total, see rubric) May work with partner: For this assignment you must establish a reader’s workshop for a five day cycle (include time frames). Your lessons must include the format detailed in your Reader’s Workshop reading (please see the readings for specific details). There must be:
- a whole group mini-lesson
- whole group lessons must include a read aloud (may be a longer book with parts read each day). Selected book or books should have a completed attached quality checklist
- activities for your students (can be literacy stations) that align to what you taught in the mini-lesson
- 3 guided reading groups with lesson plans for each group
  - What book(s) are they reading? If the groups are lower level books then it would be a new book per day b/c each book only has about 10 pages with few words.
  - What is your guided reading mini-lesson (need standard)? (think 5 mins)

Working syllabus and subject to change
- What questions do you plan to ask based on Bloom’s Taxonomy and your guided reading standard?
- How will you collect data on students in small group?
- What activity/pages will the group participate in once it leaves you?
- How often during the 5 day cycle will you meet with group and for how long?
- What type of assessment might you provide the group/individuals at the end of the 5 day cycle?

➢ Daily closing

College of Charleston Honor Code and Academic Integrity

Lying, cheating, attempted cheating, and plagiarism are violations of our Honor Code that, when identified, are investigated. Each incident will be examined to determine the degree of deception involved.

Incidents where the instructor determines the student’s actions are related more to a misunderstanding will handled by the instructor. A written intervention designed to help prevent the student from repeating the error will be given to the student. The intervention, submitted by form and signed both by the instructor and the student, will be forwarded to the Dean of Students and placed in the student’s file.

Cases of suspected academic dishonesty will be reported directly by the instructor and/or others having knowledge of the incident to the Dean of Students. A student found responsible by the Honor Board for academic dishonesty will receive a XXF in the course, indicating failure of the course due to academic dishonesty. This grade will appear on the student’s transcript for two years after which the student may petition for the XX to be expunged. The F is permanent. The student may also be placed on disciplinary probation, suspended (temporary removal) or expelled (permanent removal) from the College by the Honor Board.

Students should be aware that unauthorized collaboration—working together without permission—is a form of cheating. Unless the instructor specifies that students can work together on an assignment, quiz and/or test, no collaboration during the completion of the assignment is permitted. Other forms of cheating include possessing or using an unauthorized study aid (which could include accessing information via a cell phone or computer), copying from others’ exams, fabricating data, and giving unauthorized assistance.

Research conducted and/or papers written for other classes cannot be used in whole or in part for any assignment in this class without obtaining prior permission from the instructor.

Students can find the complete Honor Code and all related processes in the Student Handbook at http://studentaffairs.cofc.edu/honor-system/studenthandbook/index.php

What is the official College language about classroom disruption? Code language that guides our responses to classroom disruption can be found in the Student Handbook: A Guide to Civil and Honorable Conduct.

The Student Code of Conduct specifically forbids disruption or obstruction of teaching, research, administration, disciplinary proceedings other college activities, including its public-service functions on or off campus, or other authorized non-college activities when the act occurs on college premises. (Student Handbook, p.11-14)

The Classroom Code of Conduct (from the President’s Advisory Committee) covers specific principles of civil conduct expected in a college classroom:

- Do not cut classes, come in late or leave early.
- Never leave during class unless you absolutely must. Leaving for a short break and then returning is not acceptable.
- Turn off cell phones, pagers and all other electronic devices.
- It is rude and unacceptable to talk with classmates while the professor (or another student who has the floor) is talking.
- Visible and noisy signs of restlessness are rude as well as disruptive to others. (Student Handbook, pp. 58-59)

Students can find a complete version of the Honor Code and all related processes in the Student Handbook at http://www.cofc.edu/studentaffairs/general_info/studenthandbook.html

Working syllabus and subject to change
Grading

ASSIGNMENTS SHOULD BE TURNED IN COMPLETE AND ON TIME. DO NOT EMAIL FINAL VERSIONS OF ASSIGNMENTS THAT ARE SUPPOSED TO BE SUBMITTED ON OAKS. ASSIGNMENTS ARE CONSIDERED LATE IF THEY ARE NOT SUBMITTED WHEN CLASS BEGINS. FAILURE TO SUBMIT ASSIGNMENTS ON TIME WILL RESULT IN THE LOSS OF ONE PROFESSIONALISM POINT. EACH DAY PAST THE DUE DATE RESULTS IN A REDUCTION OF 10% OF THE TOTAL EARNED POINTS.

Any written assignment submitted is considered a final product that will be graded on both what is written (clarity, depth, insight) and how it is written (the form of the written work).

Therefore, it is crucial to realize that correct grammar and spelling, proper punctuation, adherence to assignment guidelines, and neatness will affect your grade. As an educator, you will be expected to demonstrate competency not only in verbal but also in written communication with parents, administrators, and other educators.

Please use the resources around you to proofread and to edit your work. The Writing Lab also provides FREE, INDIVIDUALIZED help on all parts of the writing process. See www.cofc.edu/~csl/ for further information.

 A grade of 76 or below is considered a failing grade for all graduate courses. No D’s are given in graduate classes.

2. PROFESSIONAL BEHAVIOR/DISPOSITIONS:

Students are responsible for all content and assignments for each class. They are expected to demonstrate professional behaviors consistent with the following dispositions:

- The belief that all students can learn.
- Value and respect for difference.
- Value of positive human interaction.
- Intellectual curiosity and willingness to learn new knowledge.
- A commitment to inquiry, reflection, and self-assessment.
- Value of responsible, collaborative, and cooperative work.
- Sensitivity to community and cultural context.
- Responsible and ethical practice.

3. ATTENDANCE:

Class attendance and punctuality are expected professional behaviors. Students are responsible for meeting the specific attendance requirements as outlined in the syllabus for each course. A student may receive a “WA/F” for excessive absences, based on the class attendance requirements specified in the syllabus.

4. MAKE-UP EXAMINATIONS AND QUIZZES:

If a quiz or examination (other than the final examination) was missed for a legitimate reason, as determined by the professor, the professor has the discretion to administer a make-up examination. It is the responsibility of the student to make arrangements in writing with the professor for the make-up.

5. DUE DATES:

Due dates for course assignments, as well as scheduled quizzes and exams, are listed in the syllabus. Any changes will be announced in class or on the google site. Consequences related to late materials are determined by the professor.

Working syllabus and subject to change
6. FINAL EXAMS:
The final exam for each course (which may be in the form of an examination, performance, or project) will only take place during the period scheduled for the final exam for that course. (Undergraduate students who have more than two final exams scheduled on the same day may arrange for an alternate time for one final exam through the Office of the Undergraduate Dean.) Graduate students have their own schedule and they need to go through the Graduate Dean for changes.

* Applies to all EDEE and EDFS courses and all HHP teacher education courses above the 200 level.
Revised and approved by SOEHP faculty 3/31/06

7. PAPERS:
Papers will be word processed using the style of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (most current edition).

8. HONOR SYSTEM:
All courses in the School of Education are conducted under the Honor Code of the College of Charleston. The Honor Code specifically forbids lying, cheating, attempted cheating, stealing, attempted stealing and plagiarism. Students at the College are bound by honor and by their acceptance of admission to the College to abide by the Code and to report violations. As members of the College community, students are expected to evidence a high standard of personal conduct and to respect the rights of other students, faculty, staff members, community neighbors, and visitors on campus. Students are also expected to adhere to all federal, state, and local laws. Faculty members are required to report violations of the Honor Code or Code of Conduct to the Office of Student Affairs. Conviction of an Honor Code violation in a class will result in the grade of “XF” for the course.

9. ADA ACCOMMODATIONS:
In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), all qualified students are entitled to “reasonable accommodations.” The instructor must be notified during the first week of class of any accommodations needed.

MISSION

The mission of the School of Education at the College of Charleston is the development of educators and health professionals to lead a diverse community of learners toward an understanding of and active participation in a highly complex world.

Our mission is to be a community of diverse teacher leaders who ensure exemplary learning and wellness opportunities for all individuals. These opportunities are created by professionals who can MAKE THE TEACHING - LEARNING CONNECTION through:
• Understanding and valuing the learner;
• Knowing what and how to teach and assess and how to create an environment in which learning occurs;
• Understanding ourselves as professionals.

*Working syllabus and subject to change
MAKE THE TEACHING AND LEARNING CONNECTION

The mission is further defined through elements of teacher competency that organize standards of effective teaching.

Element of Teacher Competency 1: Understand and value the learner
   Standard I: Evidence theoretical and practical understanding of the ways learners develop

Element of Teacher Competency 2: Know what and how to teach and assess and how to create an environment in which learning occurs.
   Standard II: Demonstrate understanding and application of the critical attributes and pedagogy of the major content areas.
   Standard III: Evidence a variety of strategies that optimize student learning
   Standard VI: Demonstrate an understanding of the continuous nature of assessment and its role in facilitating learning

Element of Teacher Competency 3: Understand oneself as a professional
   Standard IV: Participate in informed personal and shared decision making that has as its focus the enhancement of schooling and the profession
   Standard V: Communicate effectively with students, parents, colleagues, and the community
   Standard VII: Show an understanding of the culture and organization of schools and school systems and their connection to the larger society
